

CONSTABLE

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

The work involves responsibility for serving legal papers and performing law enforcement work. The Constable is a Peace Officer as defined by §2.10.1 of the Criminal Procedure Law, invested with powers identified in §2.20 of CPL. An employee in this class may assist in the investigation of violations of law. This class differs from that of Police Officer because the Constable lacks the full powers of a Police Officer as defined by law. The work is performed under the general supervision of the town board. Supervision of the work of others is not a normal feature of this class.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

1. Serves or executes attachments, writs, processes orders of the courts;
2. Guards election polls;
3. Serves jury summonses;
4. When assigned to a Court: maintains order and decorum, detains individuals as necessary and provides security;
5. Makes arrests with warrants;
6. May assist in the investigation of suspicious activities and violations of the law;
7. Escorts prisoners to jail and has them booked on charges;
8. May direct traffic;
9. May arrange schedule of other constables as needed for special events;
10. Does related work as required.
